To Whom It May Concern:

I can not express to you just how thrilled I am every time I find out I will be working with Los Primos at an event. They are by far the most talented and professional musicians I have ever worked with, and I am constantly referring them whenever I can. They always provide excellent entertainment, and I have on several occasions seen women cry with happiness at witnessing the amount of emotion the group brings to each performance. In my opinion, there is not a better group of musicians currently performing in New Mexico.

If you have any questions, or would like to speak to me further concerning Los Primos, please feel free to contact me anytime.

Sincerely,

Ben Chrisman
